11-YEAR HAMILTON LANE VETERAN, PETER LARSEN, JOINS ATLANTIC-PACIFIC CAPITAL AS PRINCIPAL

NEW YORK / LONDON / HONG KONG – Atlantic-Pacific Capital, the largest independently-owned global placement agent and advisory firm, announced today the addition of Peter Larsen as Principal. Mr. Larsen will be leading a team that evaluates financial sponsor prospects.

Mr. Larsen has 14 years of experience in the alternative investment industry and has worked extensively with institutional clients, including corporate and public pension programs, Taft-Hartley plans and sovereign wealth funds.

Prior to joining Atlantic-Pacific, Mr. Larsen was a Principal at Hamilton Lane Advisors where he worked for 11 years. During his tenure at Hamilton Lane, Mr. Larsen worked in New York, Philadelphia and London, leading the evaluation of buyout, venture capital, mezzanine, credit and real estate private equity funds. Most recently, he co-led Hamilton Lane's real estate investment efforts. Before Hamilton Lane, he was a consultant to a biotechnology incubator, assisting in developing marketing strategy for fundraising purposes. Previously, Mr. Larsen worked in the Private Funds Group at WR Hambrecht + Co., a private equity placement agent, and in the institutional and trading department at Charles Schwab Capital markets. Mr. Larsen earned a BA from Bucknell University and an MBA from Columbia University.

“Atlantic-Pacific's selective and customized approach has proven especially effective in today's fundraising climate,” commented Mr. Larsen. “I am excited to expand the firm's due diligence process in order to continue the focus on best-in-class managers.”

Jennifer Tedesco, Partner, said, “We are pleased to welcome Peter to Atlantic-Pacific. His wealth of experience in evaluating alternative investment opportunities will provide significant benefits to all our clients.”
